

Criminal Records Bureau

Code of Practice

For Registered Persons and other recipients of Disclosure Information

Revised April 2009

Presented to Parliament pursuant to Section 122 (2) of the Police Act 1997

INTRODUCTION

This Code is established under section 122 of Part V Police Act 1997 and determines the obligations which govern initial and ongoing registration of Registered Bodies with the Criminal Records Bureau (CRB).

The Code applies to all Registered Bodies and Umbrella Bodies, hereon referred to as Registered Bodies, and their clients. The Code also applies to applications for, and handling of, both Standard and Enhanced Disclosures.

The obligations within this Code are determined by Part V Police Act 1997 and in particular the Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records) (Registration) Regulations 2006. These provisions determine the legal requirements upon persons seeking to register and maintain their registration with the CRB as Registered Bodies. They address the way in which the CRB will ensure that:

- Organisations are assessed as suitable to receive sensitive Disclosure information;
- Organisations do not breach the spirit and requirements of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 by submitting ineligible Disclosure applications;
- Registered Bodies correctly verify the identity of Disclosure applicants to ensure the integrity of all Disclosures issued by the CRB;
- Sensitive and personal data contained within the Disclosure is correctly managed and used by Registered Bodies;
- The efficiency of the Disclosure Service is maintained by the timely payment of fees and the accuracy of Disclosure application data;
- Registered Bodies treat their applicants fairly when considering sensitive Disclosure information;
- Registered Bodies who fail to comply with the obligations within this Code may be suspended or de-registered in order to maintain the overall integrity of the Disclosure service.

The CRB takes seriously its statutory duties relevant to the rehabilitation of offenders, data protection and human rights legislation. It will therefore seek to ensure strict compliance with the Code through the full range of CRB assurance management processes.

This Code applies to all Disclosure information that is information contained within the Disclosure including information provided under the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA) scheme when introduced as well as information provided under separate cover.

This Guidance will be updated on a continual basis to ensure that it reflects the reality of CRB operations and the needs of Registered Bodies.

Significant changes to the Guidance will be notified to Registered Bodies as required.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

The CRB anticipates significant developments in its service delivery within the coming three year period. These will include:

- The establishment by the Department of Children, Schools and Families (DCSF) of the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA) which will allow for the continual monitoring of persons suitability to work within the children and vulnerable adults sectors;
- The development of e-delivery channels for access to the CRB Disclosure service, including e-applications and the extension of online tracking.

Both of these developments will impact on the role of Registered Bodies in regards to the format, content and secure handling of the information they receive as part, or associated with, the Disclosure service.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Additional Information (Enhanced Disclosures Only)

In a very small number of circumstances (typically to protect the integrity of current police investigations), Additional Information may be sent under separate cover to the countersignatory. Please note, the applicant's copy of the Disclosure will not refer to this information. Therefore this information must not be shared with the applicant.

Where the police issue a separate letter, the countersignatory's copy of the Enhanced Disclosure will contain the following words 'Please refer to letter sent under separate cover', printed under the 'date of issue' on the Disclosure.

Approved Information (Enhanced Disclosures Only)

This is non-conviction information provided by the police from their local records. The Chief Police Officer in each force will decide what, if any, information to provide. The CRB will print this information on both the applicant's and the countersignatory's copy.

Assurance Audits

Used to determine the level of compliance of Registered Bodies focussing on ID validation and data quality. It takes the form of a self-assessment questionnaire that must be completed by Lead Signatories. Where areas of non-compliance have been identified, they are addressed in a detailed report to the Lead Signatory, and in some cases a compliance visit to the organisation may also take place for further examination of their internal processes.

Countersignatory

A person within a Registered Body who is registered with the CRB to countersign applications and receive the Disclosure.

Criminal Records Registration Regulations 2006

Conditions set by CRB which must be met in order to maintain registration status.

Disclosure

The term that is used to describe the service provided by the CRB and the document issued to the applicant and Registered Body when a CRB check has been completed.

Exceptions Order 1975

The Exceptions Order to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974 sets out those occupations and positions exempt from the provisions of the ROA. These are generally positions of trust, where there is a valid need to see a person's full criminal history in order to assess their suitability for a position. This information is intended as general guidance only. It must not be regarded as a definitive interpretation of the Act. Anyone requesting further guidance should seek legal advice.

Enhanced Disclosure

Also referred to as an Enhanced check. These are for posts that involve a far greater degree of contact with children or vulnerable adults. In general the type of work will involve regularly caring for, supervising, training or being in sole charge of such people. Examples include a Teacher, Scout or Guide leader. Enhanced checks are also issued for certain statutory purposes such as gaming and lottery licences.

This level of check involves an additional level of check to those carried out for the Standard CRB check - a check on local police records. Where local police records contain additional information that may be relevant to the post the applicant is being considered for, the Chief Officer of police may release information for inclusion in an Enhanced check.

Exempted Question

An exempted question is a valid request for a person to reveal their full criminal history (including spent convictions) and is made possible by virtue of the Exceptions Order to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974.

Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA)

The ISA have been created to help prevent unsuitable people from working with children and vulnerable adults by working in partnership with the Criminal Records Bureau (CRB), gathering relevant information on every person who wants to work or volunteer with vulnerable people.

Identity Verification Checks

A process that Registered Bodies undertake to check and validate the information provided by the applicant on the application form.

Lead Signatory

A senior figure within a Registered Body who has overall responsibility for the use of the CRB checks in their organisation.

Online Tracking

Facility that can be used on the CRB website to track an application by providing the form reference number and date of birth.

Part V Police Act 1997

The piece of legislation that brought about the CRB.

Personal Data

Data which relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data.

(Sensitive) Data – Data which includes:

- Racial or ethnic origin;
- Religious or other beliefs of a similar nature;
- Physical or mental health or condition;
- Sexual life;
- Offences (including alleged offences).

Portability

Portability refers to the re-use of a CRB Disclosure, obtained for a position in one organisation and later used for another position in another organisation. This practice is no longer endorsed by the CRB due to the risk factors involved.

Registered Body

Organisations that have registered directly with the CRB to use its services.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974 enables some criminal convictions to become 'spent', or ignored, after a 'rehabilitation period'. A rehabilitation period is a set length of time from the date of conviction. After this period, with certain exceptions, an ex-offender is not normally obliged to mention the conviction when applying for a job or obtaining insurance, or when involved in criminal or civil proceedings.

Standard Disclosure

Also referred to as a Standard check. These are primarily for posts that involve working with children or vulnerable adults. Standard checks may also be issued for people entering certain professions, such as members of the legal and accountancy professions. The Standard check contains details of all convictions held on the PNC including current and 'spent' convictions as well as details of any cautions, reprimands or final warnings. If a position involves working with children, the CRB check will indicate whether information is held on three government lists of those who are banned from working with children or the vulnerable.
